

Hello Husband, Hello Children
Here I am at Camp Ton-A-Wandah
Camp is very entertaining
Not like home, I don't miss all of your complaining.

Meals are prepared here
Dishes done for me
No laundry piling up
No rides in mom's taxi
Not one school project for me to do
No temper tantrums or meltdowns
Now hubby that's for you.

Before I got here,
I felt frazzled
Now that I'm here
I feel dazzled
These girl weekends are what I live for
A weekend with the girls, I couldn't ask for more.

We did the ropes course
It was exciting
We took a zumba class
And horseback riding
I feel refreshed now
Wish I could stay here
Will you send me back to GUGG next year?

There are massages
And there's hiking
Anything that's
To my liking
We've been having "cocktail hours"
Vodka & Rum flow
Mixed with some sweet & sour.

Wait a minute
Now its Sunday
They say that I must go
But I want to stay
My girl's weekend is almost over
I think I will cry, I'm starting to feel sober.

Back to laundry
Back to cleaning house
Back to busy days
Tending to my spouse
One thing I know for sure
You just wait and see
I'll be back for girls' weekend next year, I guarantee.

What a downer
This is the worst part
Leaving new friends
It breaks my heart
But I know that we will
Do this again
On a scale of 1-9, this weekend was a 10!
